SULZER GETS BIG PETITION

TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND NEW YORKERS BE-SEECH GOVERNOR TO ENCOURAGE RACING.

Benefits That Sport Confers on a Community Are Set Forth in Document Presented at Albany by Committee of Business Men.

Albany, New York, August 1.—A petition with more than 26,000 signatures asking that racing be permitted in this state under present conditions has been presented to Governor Sulzer by a committee of business men from New York, Buffalo and Poughkeepsie. The signatures include those of capitalists, lawyers, physicians, bankers, journalists, mechanics, farmers, laborers, business men and others who are residents and voters in the State of New York. The petition states that there has been no illegal gambling at the Belmont Park track during the months of June and July. The governor was asked to encourage those who are conducting the sport. The committee members endeavored to demonstrate conclusively for the governor's edification that racing is a sport attracting wide interest, from which the greatest of benefits may be obtained both by spectators and by the breeders of horseftesh, and that it can be and has been—at the Belmont Park track—conducted without one iota of illegality. They pointed out that the sport should be encouraged, not hindered, and that other and smaller communities than the metropolis are desirous of having race meetings in their vicinities.

The petition follows in full:

"Thoroughbred horse racing in itself is a healthful, entertaining pastime, highly important as a means to induce the breeding of valuable horsefiesh, and a stimulus to an industry which in every civilized country today receives the careful and liberal encountagement of the government,

"While indulged in by the leading nations of Europe throughout their respective territories, their greatest race courses and most conspicuous racing events have grown about their commercial and political centers. There is no capital in Europe which does not count among its recognized aitractions race courses where the honors to be won rank with the rewards of the most useful and elevating occupations of its citizens.

"Great racing events punctuate the holidays of spring and summer so that in time they have become the cause of a vast influx of strangers from every part of the surrounding country, as well as from foreign lands.

"These occasions stimulate every branch of trade part of the surrounding country, as well as from foreign lands.

"These occasions stimulate every branch of trade and industry. Those cities which are fortunate enough to enjoy a reputation for generous hospitality and possess the facilities to entertain are greatly benefited thereby.

"Pleasure seeking is always accompanied by regalla, dress and festivities. Moving and happy throngs in a big community during such holiday events crowd transportation lines, fill hostelries, restaurants and theatres, so that in the end all branches of trade receive some benefit and promote the cities' growth.

"New York in this respect would respond in the same manner were it not that it suffers from overzeal on the part of certain citizens in the State of New York who have pursued and are now engaged in a crusade of persecution against racing under the guise of a hunt for the extermination of gambling. This is not warranted by the facts as they exist today. We claim, too, it does not represent the majority, and thoughtful sentiment of this community or of the state at large. We register our protest against such a policy and petition Your Excellency, as governor, to not only countenance but encourage this worthy sport and entertainment, leading as it does to such vast benefits to the first city of the state, as well as to others who may enjoy racing in their respective neighborhoods. Those who are conducting the races now in progress on Long Island have proved to our satisfaction and, we feel, to that of the public as well, that racing can be and are conducting the races now in progress on Long Island have proved to our satisfaction and, we feel, to that of the public as well, that racing can be and is to be conducted as the law prescribes and that illegal gambling is not permitted."

The governor was informed that other equally im-pressive petitions in advocacy of the contest of the thoroughbred are in process of preparation.

Ten Point Shows a Return of His Good Form in Winning Handicap in Which He Makes Weight Concessions and Runs Three-Quarters in 1:12.

Hamilton, Ont., August 1.—Form was exceptionally well observed here this afternoon, five of the seven races being won by the favorites. Three of them were at odds-on, Small fields weat to the post in the majority of the races and most of the winners had plenty to spare at the finish. A. L. Aste's Ten Point showed a return to his good form when he accounted for the day's feature, the Niagara Handieap, He scored in runaway fashion. The conditions called for a dash of three-quirters of a mile and Ten Point was conceding weight to everything in the race. He ran the distance in 1:12. Goose was substituted for Gross as Ten Point's rider, and the horse left the post with his usual dash of early speed. Donerall, the horse that beat Ten Point in the Kentucky Derby, won the secondary feature, the Bayview Purse, an allowance affair at one mile and an eighth. Like Ten Point, Donerall led from the start and was never headed.

The stewards of the Canadian Racing Association met this morning and passed on several cases left over from the previous meeting. Andy Malone and his horse Carlfon G. were restored to good standing. The suspension against jockey Montour was also lifted so far as J. B. Respess was concerned, Respess purchased the contract on the lad on Saturday last, only to be informed a few hours after the sale that the boy had been suspended. The officials were satisfied that Montour was finally in good hands, which accounted for theif action at today's meeting. J. W. Hedrick, who was suspended for harboring the ruled-off trainer, F. W. Schelke, was also restored to favor. A fine of $50 was imposed on Hedrick as a reminder that he should pay more attention to the rules in future. The rule regarding claiming was also revised to read as follows: "Resolved that all horses claimed in seling races shall remain the property of claimant for a period of thirty days and that such horse shall wholly be trained and managed in every way by his new owner and any infraction of this rule will result in the suspension of both horse and owner." Charles Harris, better known as "Chinatown Charlie," whose bankroll was reported as having been stolen from the clerk of the Brandt Hotel at Burlington Beach, is rejoicing in the return of the money, which was restored to him this morning by Provincial detectives. The hotel clerk, after being put on the rack confessed that he had hidden the money in the hotel garden and that the reported assault was only a blind to throw the police off the scent.

Prince Fonso, while being worked over the Dufferin Park track this morning, is reported to have broken down.

Starter James Milton was a visitor at Hamilton this afternoon. He left tonight for Montreal, where he will remain several days.

Saratoga, N. Y., August I.—After a lapse of two years, racing will to-morrow once again come into its own as the chief attraction at this resort. Except perhaps in the matter of attendance, the sport will not differ greatly from that of former days, when Saratoga was annually the meeting place for stables from east and west and the scene of thrilling contests between the pick of the thorough-breds representing each of these sections. The same condition will exist in this respect this season. The flower of eastern and western racers are here and will be pitted against each other in spirited contests during the next few weeks.

The crowd that has gathered here for the racing naturally falls short in numbers as compared with the throngs that visited Saratoga in the days when racing was in its heydey. Still there are a good many racing enthusiasts here and their ranks will be greatly increased as the meeting progresses. Practically all the important personages of the turf have planned to see some of the racing, at least, and most of them will be here for the entire meeting.

The racing program provides for twenty-five racing days, every day in the week, winding up on August 30. Twenty-nine stakes, including many historic features, will be run and, judging by the class of horses engaged in them, the best racing of the year should be seen, then the best racing of the year should be seen, then the best racing of the year should be seen, then the best racing of the year should be seen, then the best racing of the year should be seen them, the best racing of the year should be seen them the best racing of the year should be seen them the best racing of the year should be seen them the best racing of the year should be seen them the best racing of the year should be seen them the best racing of the year should be seen them the best racing of the year should be seen them the best racing of the year should be seen them the best racing of the year should be seen them the best racing of the year should be seen them the provi

ENDURANCE TROPHY IN PAWN SHOP.

It was learned yesterday that the handsome gold cup, valued at $1,000 and presented by the Kentucky State Racing Commission to Mrs. May Lutz, of Covington, owner of Messenger Boy, winner of the first running of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, October 7, 1911, was being offered for sale by a local pawnbroker. The trophy has no sentimental value to the man at the "hock shop" and anyone willing to part with $500 can secure possession of the cup. Besides the trophy, Mrs. Lutz received $4.780 as the winner's portion of the purse. However, the Lutz stable has earned little since that time and fifteen months ago the pawnbroker secured the cup on a loan of its actual value in gold, which is something over $760.

The cup bears the following inscription:
"Presented by Kentucky State Racing Commission to Mrs. May Lutz, winner of the four-mile Endurance Stakes, at Churchill Downs, October 7, 1911. Won by Messenger Boy. Time, 7:14½, a world's record. Trainer—Engene Lutz."

The second cup donated by the Kentucky State Racing Commission was also wen by a woman. It was captured by Mrs. L. A. Livingston, the owner of the good mare, Sotemia, which reduced Messenger Boy's time for the distance. Mrs. Livingston is worth millions, and the trophy she won occupies a conspicious place in her handsome home.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

going that gained him many admirers.

Fat Meaney, who rode the nighty Fourke Cochran and many other notable steeplechasers in days gone by, is training several norses at his establishment near the Saratoga race track. In the collection is Harry S. Page's Gold Plate, a winner this season at Brookline and Belmont Park Terminal Gold Plate is a candidate for the North American the Saratoga and Beverwyck Steeplechases. It was while riding for the Beverwyck Stable, owned by former Mayor Nolan, of Albany, that Meaney ranked with the topnotchers of his profession.
